

FNB Mortgage expands operation into Davidson County

FNB Mortgage, a department of First National Bank of Middle Tennessee, has expanded its operation into Davidson County, President and CEO Pieter van Vuuren announced today. “Our mortgage operation has grown tremendously over the last few years and we achieved great results due to the terrific team of employees we have put together over the last few years. With our strong operations, we were able to attract a very experienced mortgage lender that will enable us to capture residential mortgage business in Davidson and adjacent counties”, van Vuuren stated.

He added, “The Nashville market is a vibrant market and residential real estate has been extremely strong with no indications of a slowdown. We believe that we have found the right person to grow our business in this market”.

Connie Eddy has joined the FNB Mortgage team and will focus on the Davidson County market with some overlap in other counties also. Mrs. Eddy has numerous years of experience as a mortgage lender and has spent most of her time in the Middle Tennessee market.

Mrs. Eddy’s can be reached at ceddy@fnbfg.com and will be located at 608 Shelby Avenue, Nashville TN.

About First National Bank of Middle Tennessee

Founded in 1874 and currently with approximately $500 million in total assets, First National Bank of Middle Tennessee has a full range of banking services. First National Bank of Middle Tennessee is a member FDIC and an Equal Housing Lender.