

First National Bank of Middle Tennessee President and CEO, Pieter van Vuuren, recently announced the promotion of Kelly Kell to Banking Officer/Branch Manager.

“Kelly has been an outstanding employee of the bank and has been responsible for several things throughout the time she has been at the bank. She has been at the Smithville Highway location for a few years now and has shown that she is very well equipped to be the leader of our team at this branch”, van Vuuren said.

Kell has been with First National Bank of Middle Tennessee for nine years. She began her career with First National in 2008, as a Teller and now has been promoted to Branch Manager of the Smithville Hwy. branch on 917 Smithville Hwy. McMinnville, TN. Upon receiving the promotion Kell stated: “I feel very honored to have received this promotion. First National Bank of Middle Tennessee has provided many opportunities to grow in my career, that which I am thankful.”
