

FNB Wealth Management Services: Knowles recognized and adds Haston

First National Bank of Middle Tennessee recently announced that FNB Wealth Management Services has produced outstanding results in 2016 and has also added a very experienced staff member. “FNB Wealth Management Services has realized substantial growth since adding Andy Knowles, two years ago. Andy has a very strong work ethic and great personal skills. Mr. Knowles, an LPL Financial-affiliated advisor at FNB Wealth Management Services and employee of First National Bank of Middle Tennessee, recently surpassed the production level required to qualify for LPL’s Director’s Club. This qualification is based on annual production among approximately 14,000 advisors registered nationwide.

Mr. van Vuuren emphasized the following about Mr. Knowles, “Andy has earned the respect of Warren County customers and has helped a great number of individuals and families pursue financial success.”

First National Bank of Middle Tennessee also announced the addition of Shannon Haston to the FNB Wealth Management Services team. Mrs. Haston has a wealth of experience in the financial services industry and has joined the staff as sales assistant. “Shannon’s experience, great personality and strong following in Warren County makes her addition exactly what FNB Wealth Management Services needs. I believe, with Shannon and Andy together, we can grow this department to one of the strongest wealth management teams in the mid-state.” Mrs. Haston, a graduate of Warren County High School and Tennessee Tech, has served in the financial services industry for many years and holds the designation of Certified IRA Services Professional. Mrs. Haston has also graduated from the Cannon Trust School and the Southeastern School of Banking.
