

Milligan joins FNB Mortgage

A 15-year mortgage loan veteran has joined the FNB Mortgage team, announces Bill Fuson, manager of the office located at Suite 301 of the Waterstone Building, 1608 Williams Drive.

Karen Milligan joins FNB Mortgage as a loan originator/consultant, effective June 3, as the local mortgage loan business continues to expand in a growing and improving market.

"Karen brings great knowledge and expertise in finding the right mortgage option for her clients. She possesses the commitment to customer service that exemplifies FNB Mortgage," Dave Gober, sales manager, said of Milligan.

A native of Kenton in West Tennessee and MTSU graduate, Milligan is an award-winning mortgage loan originator with a highly successful track record for performance and service.

"I look forward to joining FNB Mortgage and to become part of a local company that focuses on offering our clients the most competitive mortgage products and interest rates available," Milligan said, adding, "The commitment FNB offers to my clients is impressive. I am excited to demonstrate the great mortgage experience our clients deserve."

She is married to Kevin and they have two children. They make their home in the Siegel neighborhood and are members of World Outreach Church where she has taught elementary age Sunday School

Milligan has also served as a volunteer at Special Kids events and with Habitat for Humanity projects.
