

Rogers named to board at First National Bank of McMinnville

McMinnville, TN. – April 28, 2013. William S. “Bill” Rogers, the general manager of Caney Fork Electric Cooperative, Inc., has joined the board of directors of First National Bank.

“On behalf of the Board of Directors, I am very pleased to announce that Bill Rogers has been selected to join the Board of Directors of First National Bank,” Levoy Knowles, board chairman, said.

“Bill is a proven leader in the community as well as within his industry,” Knowles noted, adding, “He brings to the board a level of business acumen and professionalism that will greatly benefit our board. We are excited that Bill has agreed to accept this position and look forward to his input and leadership.”

Rogers said he is truly honored and flattered by his appointment to the First National board.

“Over the past 28 years, I have come to know many employees and directors and always viewed those associated with FNB as leaders in our community. I’m excited about this opportunity and look forward to working with the board and staff,” he said.

Rogers has spent his entire professional career at Caney Fork, working his way up from engineer to general manager after joining the cooperative upon graduation from Tennessee Technological University with an electrical engineering degree in 1985.

He was named to his current post in 2008 after serving as interim manager in 2007, assistant general manager/director of engineering in 1997, manager of engineering in 1991 and chief engineer in 1986.

A native of Clarksville, Rogers is married to Kristie B. Rogers, assistant principal at Warren County Middle School. They have one son, Slayden Rogers, 21, a junior at Tech.

Rogers is a member of the McMinnville Noon Rotary; president of the Tennessee Electric Cooperative Association; board member of the Central Service Association, a billing and customer information agency for CFEC; board member and secretary for McMinnville Country Club; and executive committee member and vice president of the Middle Tennessee Industrial Development Association.

He enjoys golf and spending time at area lakes with his family.
