

Bennett joins First National Bank

First National Bank of Middle Tennessee recently announced the addition of Katie Bennett. Mrs. Bennett joined the Bank as Vice-President and Commercial Lender.

“We are excited to have Katie onboard with us. Katie is a well-balanced and experienced lender. She has all the characteristics that are needed to be a huge success at our Bank. Our Board of Directors have confidence that Katie will continue the community banking values that we strive to achieve on a daily basis,” Pieter van Vuuren, First National Bank of Middle Tennessee President and CEO, said, adding, “Katie has proved herself in this very competitive Middle Tennessee market and has shown that giving outstanding customer service by knowing the financial services industry and what customer’s needs are is a crucial part of being successful.”

Mrs. Bennet said, “First National Bank of Middle Tennessee has a rich tradition and strong foundation in community banking. For this reason, it is both an honor and a privilege to join the team of banking professionals who provide the highest level of banking products and services to our friends and neighbors within the community.”

A graduate of The Webb School in Bell Buckle TN and the University of Tennessee in Knoxville, Mrs. Bennett comes to the Bank with more than 15 years’ experience in banking. She most recently worked as a commercial and construction lender with a focus in the Middle Tennessee market. Mrs. Bennett is also a graduate of Leadership Rutherford and a former Board Member of Leadership Rutherford. She is also very involved with activities at Middle Tennessee Christian School where her two children attend.
